Elizabeth Rogers Biography

Elizabeth Rogers is the Social Studies Content Specialist for Edmond Public Schools and currently teaches at Edmond North High School. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Central Oklahoma with a Bachelor of Art degree in Social Studies Education.

Elizabeth has taught Oklahoma, Pre-AP Oklahoma, World, Advanced Placement World, United States, and Advanced Placement United States History. She is a published author, serves as the secretary for the Oklahoma Council for Social Studies, and has presented at numerous site, district, and state conferences. She helped create Oklahoma’s US History course iTunes U and was recognized with the Rising Teacher Award from the Oklahoma Council for Social Studies.

Elizabeth has been married for 10 years and has one child.